

Hendrix's Headlines

Weeks of January 27–February 7

Notes from Mrs. Hendrix

• SUPPLIES NEEDED!!!!

We are completely out of pencils in our classroom. Please be sure to check with your child to make sure they have enough, and if you have the ability to donate some to our class supply it would be greatly appreciated.

• We have made it to Oregon!!! To celebrate this even we will be having a pioneer party on February 13. This party will include music, a mountain man, butter making and games. Students are also encouraged to dress like a pioneer on that day. More info about this will be coming home within the next week or so.

This week in class:

Reader's Workshop: We will be finishing Snow Treasure with a project that will be due on Feb 7 and will also start doing some work with nonfiction text.

Writer's Workshop: We will be finishing our Westward Ho! Project, and beginning a new unit on informational writing.

Math: We will test on Jan. 30.

Language: We will be starting unit 5 that looks at irregular verbs. We will test on this Feb 7.

Science: We will be doing some experiments from Chapter 8 and then start on Chapter 9.

Upcoming Events

January

30 — Mrs. Hendrix will be out of the classroom for tech training

February

- 7 — High School Homecoming
13 — Oregon Trail party in the morning and Valentine's Day classroom party in the afternoon.
14 — No School

Spelling List

Test on February 7

Pronouncing i and o in words

child	cinder
cold	their
jolt	trouble
grind	usually
mildew	prehistoric window	